

Supporting an Individual with Challenging Behavior Quiz

1. Review all materials.
2. Print quiz, complete, and attach to Inservice Training Sheet.
3. Route to Staff Training Specialist.

Training Title: Supporting an Individual with Challenging Behavior: A Team Approach

Source of Training: Internet

Instructor: Melody Wolf

Qualifications: LPN/Staff Training Specialist

Content of Training: Training specific to positive approaches paradigm for support with staff and people with developmental disabilities.

Number of Hours: 2 Hours

Training Code: SCB

1. Name 4 points of positive approaches paradigm.
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 - 4.
2. Supporting a person with challenging behavior is not a process.
 True
 False
3. When supporting a person with challenging behavior it is important to remember you need to “fix the person.”
 True
 False
4. In your own words explain the fines points of supporting people.

5. Name the 7 principles in changing your vision from caretaker to supporter.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.

6. It is not important for the direct support professional to know their “triggers” when working with people with challenging behaviors.

- True
 False

7. List ways you as a direct support professional can take care to maintain your professional detachment.
